

Coming Home Again Singles Classic: A Nostalgic Journey for Golf's Greatest

The Coming Home Again Singles Classic is a unique golf tournament that brings together some of the greatest players in the game's history. Founded in 2013 by Bernhard Langer and Annika Sorenstam, the tournament is held annually at Lake Nona Golf & Country Club in Orlando, Florida. The field is limited to players who have won a major championship or have been ranked number one in the world.

The format of the tournament is simple: 18 holes of stroke play, with no cut. The winner is the player with the lowest score after 18 holes. In the event of a tie, a sudden-death playoff is held.
