

The Great War Begins: A Landmark Naruto Graphic Novel

The story of The Great War Begins is set in the ninja world, a world where people with special abilities known as chakra can use it to perform powerful techniques. The story follows Naruto Uzumaki, a young ninja who dreams of becoming Hokage, the leader of his village.

Naruto and his friends are part of the Allied Shinobi Forces, a coalition of ninja villages that have come together to fight against the Akatsuki, a criminal organization led by Madara Uchiha. Madara and his followers are seeking to collect the nine tailed beasts, powerful creatures that can be used to create a weapon of mass destruction.

Naruto and his friends are tasked with finding and defeating the Akatsuki before they can collect all of the tailed beasts. The story follows Naruto as he travels from village to village, fighting against the Akatsuki and their allies. Along the way, he learns more about his own powers and the history of the ninja world.
